CALL FOR PAPER

In line with our quest for cutting edge research in engineering and other related disciplines, the Faculty of Engineering Chukwuemeka Odumegwu Ojukwu University (COOU) as the organizers, invite you to participate at the 4th International Conference on Engineering Adaption and Policy Reforms for Industrial Development (ICEAPR 2019) with the theme: NIGERIA BEYOND OIL; the Role of Engineers. Interested participants who are willing to present well-researched paper(s) at the conference are hereby requested to submit full length paper(s) on or before September 30 2019. Papers are expected to address issues related to the main theme and subthemes of the conference as follows:

- Energy and Alternative Sources
- Infrastructural Development and Environmental Control
- Waste Management Issues and the Environment
- Engineering and Security
- Power Systems: Generation, Transmission and Distribution Subsystems
- Solid Minerals and Raw Materials Processing
- Industrial Automation Systems
- Nanotechnology: Nanoenergy and nanoelectronics
- Artificial Intelligence
- Etc.

PAPER FORMAT

All submissions should be prepared in Microsoft Word file, typeset using 13 points Times New Romans Font on 8.5" x 11 inches A4 paper, leaving one inch margin.

Title: A maximum of Eighteen Words.
